

Serendipi-Tea House

Serendipi-Tea House was born of a dream held by Julie for many years. A place where people can enjoy a relaxing cup of tea, a chat and partake of the home-made slices, soups, salads, sandwiches and meals all made with vitamin 'L'. Jack, Julie's husband and gofer, was brought out of retirement to help his girls' dream come true. The Serendipi-Tea House was finally opened on 2nd November, 2007. We are ably assisted on occasion by our 13 year old daughter, Victoria-Rose.

Rest assured, you will receive service from a family who enjoy their work. No rush, relax, and take that break from your day, that you so rarely get the chance for. You'll find us in William Street, Westbury across the way from the Commonwealth Bank. Hope to see you soon, you won't regret your choice.
